Idleb, Hama – Syrian Arab Army responded with appropriate weapons to the terrorist groups' breaches of de-escalation zone agreement , inflicting heavy losses upon them in personnel and equipment and destroying their fortified points in the countryside of Hama and Idleb.

SANA reporter said that an army unit on Monday carried out missile strikes against a terrorist group that sneaked from the vicinity of al-Tah village in Idleb southern countryside towards the safe areas and military points.

The army unit clashed with the group members with machinegun weapons and repelled them, SANA reporter added.

The strikes destroyed terrorists' dens in the area from which they sneaked and killed and wounded many of them.

Terrorist Mukhles al-A'waj was identified among the killed .

The reporter added that the army units conducted artillery strikes against positions of "Turkistani Party" terrorists in the vicinity of Badama and al-Najiya villages in Jisr al-Shughour western countryside in retaliation to their breaches of the de-escalation zone agreement.

The strikes destroyed the terrorists' dens and positions on the outskirts of the de-escalation zone.

In the northern countryside of Mhadra area, the reporter said, the army foiled terrorist groups' attempts to infiltrate from the outskirts of al-Janabira village and Tal Othman into military points to attack them, killing and injuring many of its members.

Army units, operating in Tal Bazam, foiled terrorists' infiltration attempt from direction of al-Lahaia town towards military posts and safe villages in Hama northern countryside, inflicting losses upon the terrorists, the reporter indicated.
